

DEPUTY PRIME MINISTER
70 WHITEHALL, LONDON SW1A 2AS

I am delighted to welcome Kaleidoscope, and I wish you all of the best in your future work. The vision this organisation is articulating – for a world where everyone can express their sexuality without fear of prejudice – is one all liberals stand behind. And we share your belief that global problems, ultimately, have grassroots, local solutions. I have no doubt that Kaleidoscope’s innovative and unique approach will prove hugely important in the fight for LGB&T rights, both here and across the world.

Nick Clegg

September 2011